Defence Academy at Barrackpore

920. SHRI TARINI KANTA ROY: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state whether Government propose to establish a Defence Academy at Barrackpore, West Bengal in view of the celebration of 150th year of First Indian War for Independence this year?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI A.K. ANTONY): There is no such proposal before the Government.

Theft of Photo I-Cards of Army Personnel

921. SHRI MAHENDRA MOHAN:
SHRIMATI PREMA CARIAPPA:

Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that photo identity cards of more than 50 army personnel, posted in a unit in Ludhiana, were stolen/misplaced just before the Republic Day this year;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether any enquiry has been initiated in this regard; and

(d) if so, the findings of the enquiry and the corrective measures taken?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI A.K. ANTONY): (a) to (d) No, Sir. However, a case of loss of 87 identity cards of Personnel Below Officers' Rank (PBOR) of Army has been brought to the notice of the Government, in December 2006, at a place other than Ludhiana. In all such cases a Court of Inquiry is convened and details are shared with concerned agencies for taking necessary precautionary measures. The review of security measures is a continuous process.

Kidnapping and murders of children around NCR

922. SHIR PYARELAL KHANDELWAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that cases of kidnapping, raping and killing of children have increased during the last three years, in and around the National Capital Region;

(b) if so, year-wise and city-wise details thereof;

(c) the details of the number of children rescued out of them, still missing and those about whom it has been confirmed that they have been killed;

(d) whether Government have formulated any scheme to get rid of these types of gangs active in Delhi and cities around the National Capital Region; and

(e) if so, the details thereof and the results achieved so far of these efforts?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) and (b) As per the information provided Delhi Police, the details of case of kindnapping, raping and killing of children in Delhi during the year 2004, 2005 and 2006 are given in Statement-I (See below). The table shows an increase in cases of murder and kidnapping in 2006 in comparison to 2005 in Delhi. Whereas there is decline of cases of rape in 2006 in comparison to 2005 in Delhi. As per the information provided by National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB), the details of cases of kidnapping, raping and killing of children in National Capital Region (NCR) except Delhi during 2003, 2004 and 2005 are given in Statement - I (See below). The total cases registered in NCR Cities except Delhi shows increase in 2006 in comparison to 2005.

(c) The details regarding children rescued out of them, still missing and those whom it has been confirmed that they have been killed, in Delhi are given in Statement-II (See below). The above said information respect of the cities of NCR is not maintained by NCRB.

(d) and (e) No particular gang has been detected in Delhi. However, the steps taken by Delhi in this regard include briefing the Division/Beat staff daily to keep a watch over the bad elements in their respective areas, taking stern action against the bad elements found involved in any illegal activity, carrying out Motorcycle/Foot Patrolling on the round-the-clock basis in the area including the Government Quarters and Jhuggi Clusters. The tracing out percentage of missing persons which was about 25% has gone to 73.77% in 2006 after computerisation. This is three times greater then the earlier figures. More than 80% missing children have been recovered. With regard to cities of NCR falling in other States, as Police is a State Subject, the activeness of gangs and result of achievement to contain such crime depends upon the steps taken by the State Government.
